

Dear Retailer,

I wanted to show you some pieces from my Stonewear Necklace Collection. As a nationally renowned potter, I personally make each of these unique necklaces ~ no two are exactly alike. These necklaces are being sold at select stores around the country and are selling quite well. They are the perfect price points for gifts and sell well from your point of sale area. Other fine pottery pieces can be seen on my website at www.skmpottery.com.
